Dear Dave:

We have had communication for a long time concerning the above-named individual. I hope you have now been able to get us the Confidential Record Sheet and the outcome of the legal action. This will then complete our file and enable us to put it away.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to ask me on this item.

By the way, congratulations on your fifty (50) years of registered service with the Boy Scouts of America! This is a tremendous accomplishment. We do not all manage to survive for that long!

SUBJECT: Larry William Shepard

Dear Dave:

We hope you received the Confidential Record Sheets which we sent you so that you would be able to complete personal information on Mr. Shepard. We really need this information if we are to have the necessary facts for refusal of registration.

We would also like more information concerning this situation since the original material which we received indicated that he had been charged with some sexual felony counts.

I would think, in the approximately two-year period, that legal action would have been completed so that we could get the conviction and sentencing if these occurred.

Let us know if we may be of help to you in any other way.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

CONF013390

Scout leader asking exam in sex charges

By DICK FRAZIER
Lansing State Journal.

CHARLOTTE — A 35-year-old Sunfield Boy Scout troop leader demanded pretrial examination Wednesday in Charlotte District Court on five felony counts of criminal sexual conduct involving four girls, including a relative, ages 9 to 13.

Named in the warrants was Larry William Shepard, 35, of 5251 Needmore Highway, Charlotte, an employee of the TRW plant in Portland and leader of Sunfield Boy Scout Troop 157.

Prosecutor Michael Hocking said his office was called into the investigation Nov. 7 after one of the victims mentioned some irregularities to her teacher at Sunfield Elementary School and the school principal contacted Eaton County's protective services representatives.

Hocking said he turned the investigation over to state police at the Lansing Post, and detectives worked nearly two weeks before turning the results of their inquiries over to his office Tuesday.

Hocking said warrants were authorized Wednesday morning charging Shepard with three counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct (involving fondling two older victims) and two counts of third-degree criminal sexual conduct (involving oral sex with two 9-year-olds).

Hocking said the warrants allege the crimes occurred on various trips Shepard took with the girls in Eaton County. The prosecutor said the investigation is continuing.

Shepard, Hocking said, voluntarily surrendered to state police at the Lansing post when they informed him they had warrants for his arrest. He demanded examination before District Judge Kenneth Hansen and was jailed in lieu of $16,000 cash bond. His preliminary examination was set for Dec. 2 at 10 a.m.
